Hi, Troops – It's meeting time again - - Thursday, March 20th , at the Elks Lodge in Lancaster. This also happens to be the first day of Spring, although Ol' man winter isn't ready to go away just yet. Hang in there - - warmer weather will get here before too long. (I hope). 'course if it doesn't happen , we can always resort to Obama's favorite saying , "blame it on Bush". Do you somehow get the impression that I don't like our self appointed king ?? Now whatever gave you that idea??

Moving on to much more important stuff, - - - as I mentioned in last month's rag, some much needed repairs on the cabin's flooring will be attended to at the April work party. Since this project is pretty much a major undertaking, the first work party of the year will consist of two days – Saturday, and Sunday, April 26th, and 27th , with the April meeting on Saturday the 26th. As I understand it, the carpet in the big room has already been removed, and the floor has been opened up along the upper side of the cabin. This revealed rotted floor joists, which will have to be replaced. Water will also have to be diverted away from the cabin, in order to prevent the new floor joists from rotting. I'm told a plan for that is being worked on.

Atta boy, Frankie !!! - - - (Frank McNamara turned in his consent form for the windmill deal, and the first quarter lease payment of $974.05 was received from the windmill people.) I won't pick on you no more, Frank - - you done good!!

There's talk of an upcoming fishing tournament ,Troops. Rumor has it that the board members are hashing this over. No details as yet, but I suspect something will be said about this at this upcoming meeting.

It's been reported that Bill Maslach is doing well after his recent mugging experience. That's good to hear.

As much as I hate to say it, Troops – the club dues are to be paid up in just one more month, (to avoid the late charges) Okay – I'll shut up about that - - for now.

Stay safe, and stay healthy, Troops. Hope to see you at the meeting on the 20th.

Dick Z.
