Hi, Troops – it's that time again – this month's meeting will be held at the cabin at 6:00 p.m., on Saturday, November 21st. That also happens to be the first day of deer season ( as if you didn't already know that ) Anyhoo – election of officers will be held, since there was not a quorum at the October meeting. As for the hunters, a reminder that the first week is for members only – Sons or daughters are allowed for the second week, provided they're with a member. As always, stay safe – know what you're shooting at, and what's beyond your target – and get home safe and in one piece, with no additional holes in your bodies. Once again – farmers, cows, horses, and dogs are all no-no's. Do not shoot any of these. ( Or other hunters, either.)

Firewood was cut, split, and stacked at the September work party, so you hunters will be warm during your stay at the cabin.

Sad to report that Rick Tartick's mother passed away last month. Deepest sympathies on your loss, Rick.

Further bad news – Bob Raczka is now using a walker, and Archie Grupp has arthritis. Best wishes to both of them.

As for things concerning the club's campgrounds, - - trees have been marked for cutting - - the much needed repairs on the driveway are a top priority, and we need to find someone to plow the driveway this winter. Plowing, and seeding the big field, and Mark's field are also things which must be done. I seem to remember hearing something awhile back, about putting in some apple trees around the camp acreage, in order to attract more game. Is that still on the table? Inquiring minds want to know.

We're still accepting donations for the proposed pavilion, Troops. Just a gentle reminder – kinda' like the gentle jabs I give ya' about dues, y'know?

On a related subject, I've been informed that two members have not put in a work day at the campgrounds this year, as is required by club rules. These two members have been notified by our club president, so there's no need to mention names here, but I have to remind them that a check for their assessment of $160.00 must be received by Mark Zaller NO Later than November 18th. His address is : Mark Zaller what's right.

----- You're on your own now, guys – do

That just about does it for this month, Troops - - Stay safe, stay healthy, and stay cool. Good luck to all you hunters – just remember all the no-no's listed above. Have a good meeting , Troops !! See ya next year.

Merry Christmas, and Happy New Year !!!!!!! Dick Z.
